VII. Reflection

In this section, you will write a brief reflection on your learning. Answer the following guide questions:

1. Why is an "active state" in a navigation bar important for user experience? An active state in a navigation bar helps users see which page they are currently on. It makes it easier for people to understand where they are on the website. This helps them navigate the site more easily without getting confused.

2. How does a grid system help in organizing a large amount of visual content like a portfolio? A grid system helps organize a large amount of visual content by arranging items in a clear and structured layout. It keeps images, text, and projects aligned so the portfolio looks neat and easy to scan. This makes it easier for users to browse and quickly find the content they are interested in.
